

Notice of Intention to set up a Crane for use in the ACT

Duty of Care

The ACT Work Health and Safety Act 2011 requires employers to provide a healthy and safe work environment, safe plant and equipment, health and safety information and training and adequate safety clothing and equipment.

Employees are required under the ACT Work Health and Safety Act 2011 to use all personal protective equipment in the correct and safe manner (as instructed by their employer); and to cooperate with their employer to fulfil their duties and not to endanger themselves or others.

Duties of person erecting or installing plant in a workplace under the ACT

Work Health and Safety Act 2011

26 Duty of persons conducting businesses or undertakings that install, construct or commission plant or structures

- (1) This section applies to a person who conducts a business or undertaking that installs, constructs or commissions plant or a structure that is to be used, or could reasonably be expected to be used, as, or at, a workplace.
- (2) The person must ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that the way in which the plant or structure is installed, constructed or commissioned ensures that the plant or structure is without risks to the health and safety of persons—
 - (a) who install or construct the plant or structure at a workplace; or
 - (b) who use the plant or structure at a workplace for a purpose for which it was installed, constructed or commissioned; or
 - (c) who carry out any reasonably foreseeable activity at a workplace in relation to the proper use, decommissioning or dismantling of the plant or demolition or disposal of the structure; or
 - (d) who are at or in the vicinity of a workplace and whose health or safety may be affected by a use or activity referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

Penalty

The fines associated with breaching the Safety Duty provision of the ACT Work Health and Safety Act 2011 can, as a maximum, be up to $3 000 000 or up to 5 years imprisonment
