Medical Examination of Commercial Vehicle Driver Licence

Please find enclosed your medical form to be completed by you and the doctor in order to maintain a valid commercial vehicle licence. Medical assessments are valid for six months from the date of issue.

The medical standards set out in 'Assessing Fitness to Drive' act as a guide for medical practitioners in providing expert advice when carrying out driver fitness checks on behalf of driver licensing authorities.

The standards (and medical form) were developed in conjunction with a range of medical organisations on behalf of the National Transport Commission (NTC) and Austroads and have been endorsed as the national standards for commercial vehicle drivers.

In accordance with the ACT's commitment to national road safety initiatives, these standards apply to all drivers of public buses, taxis, hire cars, restricted hire cars, riders of hire car vehicles, accredited driving instructors, rideshare vehicles and heavy vehicles over 8 tonne GVM.

All medical practitioners in the ACT have been issued the medical standards. The assumed and preferred role of the examining doctor is to advise whether the criteria for driving a commercial vehicle are met. The ultimate decision as to whether a person applying for or retaining a commercial vehicle licence, is a matter for the Road Transport Authority.

Please follow the instructions on the medical form and arrange an appointment with your own doctor as required. If you pass the medical examination, the examining doctor will return the completed Commercial Driver's Health Assessment to you, and it should be forwarded to Road User Services immediately. Failure to do so may result in your commercial licence being cancelled. Road User Services does not acknowledge the return of medical assessment reports. If there is a problem with the report or the report is not received by the due date, you will be contacted.

The completed Commercial Driver's Health Assessment can be submitted by mail to P.O Box 582 Dickson ACT 2602 or emailed to rusmedicals@act.gov.au or faxed to (02) 6207 7120.

The Australian Taxation Office has advised that a tax deduction may be allowable for a medical expense that is sufficiently linked to a particular vocation. On this basis the cost of the examination may be claimed as a work related expense. For more information please contact the Australian Taxation Office.
