_____/_____/_____

Nature of offence/nature of insolvency (delete whichever does not apply): (insert nature of offence/insolvency)

Sentence: (insert details of sentence if applicable)

(Should there be insufficient space to complete a full response please annex particulars and mark with the letters "AN1". You should also provide, if possible, a copy of any relevant court documentation, e.g. copy of court order etc.)

Section B – For Your Information

A notice under section 62 of the Legal Profession Act 2008 must be in accordance with this approved form and given to the Legal Practice Board within 7 days of the date of the event. Further, you are required within 28 days after the date of the event to provide to the Legal Practice Board a written statement explaining why, despite the event, you continue to be a suitable person to hold a practising certificate.

“Serious Offence” is defined in Part 2 of the Legal Profession Act 2008 as including:

- (a) an indictable offence against a law of the Commonwealth or any jurisdiction (whether or not the offence is or may be dealt with summarily); or
- (b) an offence against the law of another jurisdiction that would be an indictable offence against a law of this jurisdiction (whether or not the offence is or may be dealt with summarily if committed in this jurisdiction); or
- (c) an offence against the law of a foreign country that would be an indictable offence against the law of the Commonwealth or this jurisdiction if committed in this jurisdiction (whether or not the offence is or may be dealt with summarily if committed in this jurisdiction).

“Tax Offence” means an offence under the Taxation Administration Act 1953 of the Commonwealth, whether committed in or outside this jurisdiction.

Section C - Certification

I certify that the information set out in this form is true and correct and I have not omitted any relevant information.
