3. National Police Certificate

The Real Estate and Business Agents Act 1978 requires any applicant applying for renewal of a real estate and business agent licence to be of good character and repute, and a fit and proper person to hold a licence. Please attach to this application an original or duly certified copy of an Australian police check for each director and the person in bona fide control of the body corporate, which is no more than 12 months old. Please note that State Records Act 2000 requirements mean we cannot return the original document. However, a certified copy can be made available upon request.

Please see www.commerce.wa.gov.au/consumer-protection/police-checks for a list of acceptable Australian police checks. Please see www.commerce.wa.gov.au/cp/authorisedwitness for a list of occupations authorised to certify documents.

4. Fitness to Hold a Licence

The Real Estate and Business Agents Act 1978 requires that all directors and persons involved in the management or control of the body corporate ("relevant persons") are of 'good character and repute' and fit to be concerned in the management or control of the agent's business. To assist the Commissioner in determining this, please ensure that the following information is completed as it relates to all relevant persons:

Since the grant of the licence or since the last renewal, whichever is later, have any of the relevant persons, in Australia or elsewhere:	Yes	No
(a) been subject to disciplinary action in relation to any authorisation (eg licence, certificate, registration) under any Act relating to the regulation of any business, trade, profession, industry or occupation?
(b) been the subject of any investigations or proceedings that are still current or pending and which may result in disciplinary action being taken in relation to any such authorisation?
(c) been convicted of, or found guilty of, any offences?
(d) entered into a recognisance, which is still in force, in relation to any offence?
(e) been subject to any charge in relation to any offence for which proceedings are still pending, including proceedings by way of appeal or review?
(f) been an officer of a body corporate that has been the subject of a prosecution or civil or disciplinary proceedings?

If you answered 'Yes' to any of the above questions, please complete the following table. Attach additional information if required, including, if you wish, information about any mitigating circumstances.

Nature of Offence/proceedings	Court/Board/Tribunal	State / Territory	Case/Matter Number	Date	Sentence/Penalty

Since the grant of the licence or since the last renewal, whichever is later, have any of the relevant persons, in Australia or elsewhere:	Yes	No
(g) had an application refused for an authorisation (eg licence, certificate, registration) under any Act relating to the regulation of any business, trade, profession, industry or occupation?
(h) had an authorisation granted (eg licence, certificate, registration) under any Act relating to the regulation of any business, trade, profession, industry or occupation, which for any reason is no longer in force?
(i) been refused membership to or been subject to disciplinary action in relation to any a professional body?
(j) been struck off the roll of legal practitioners in this State or elsewhere in the Commonwealth?

6. Late Renewal Applications (this section is mandatory if you are lodging a late renewal application)

If your renewal application is lodged with Consumer Protection after the expiry date of your triennial certificate, the following will occur:

Applications lodged within one month of expiry of your triennial certificate

- the renewal shall be deemed to take effect for the period of 3 years from the day next succeeding the day on which the triennial certificate expired.

Applications lodged more than one month but not more than 12 months after the expiry of your triennial certificate

- You are required to satisfy the Commissioner that there is reasonable cause for the lateness of the renewal in order for the renewal to take effect for the period of 3 years from the day after the triennial certificate expired. Please provide details below.

Attach additional details if required

7. Financial Information

The Commissioner for Consumer Protection cannot grant a renewal unless (s)he is satisfied that the applicant has sufficient material and financial resources available to comply with the requirements of the Act.
