Application for supervisor certificate

(s106 of the Education and Care Services National Law Act 2010)

Please note: this is not an exhaustive list. You may use other forms of evidence to demonstrate you meet these requirements. Please contact your regulatory authority for more information if you want to use other evidence.

Requirements – this evidence can be used to demonstrate
Types of evidence	Adequate knowledge and understanding of the provision of education and care to children	Ability to effectively supervise and manage an education and care service	Experience or qualification
			Three years' experience*	Approved diploma or ECT qualification
Resume	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Your resume should be current and include enough information for the regulatory authority to assess you against the requirement/s. It should include details about your current employment and your employment history such as the name and type of service, dates and duration of your employment, basis of your employment (full-time or part-time) and your role and duties at the service. If you don't have experience managing an education and care service, you may be able to demonstrate your management ability with information about your areas of responsibility at an education and care service or in other types of children's services or sectors.
Written reference from an employer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A written reference from an employer should describe your skills and experience so the regulatory authority can assess whether you meet the requirement/s. It should also include details about your employment such as the name and type of service, dates and duration of your employment, basis of your employment (full-time or part-time), your position at the service and a description of your duties. ✦ The WA Regulatory Authority will only review a reference when requested on a case by case basis
	✓	✓	✓	✗
Completion of an education and care qualification	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Evidence of completion of an approved education and care qualification includes copies of your transcripts or parchments. You can include evidence of completion of an education and care qualification, including approved or non-approved qualifications of any level, as evidence of your knowledge and understanding. You can include evidence of completion of units of study or professional development that are relevant to supervising or managing an education and care service as evidence of your management ability. For example, courses or units that relate to staff management or managing an education and care service in accordance with the Education and Care Services National Regulations.
	✓	✓	✗	✓ Approved diploma or ECT qualifications only

*Three years' experience as an educator can be full-time or part-time. It may be gained over one consecutive period or made up from several periods of employment over a longer period.

For the purposes of this requirement, an 'educator' means an individual who provides education and care to children as part of an education and care service, a children's service, a school, or a service formerly regulated under an education and care services law. It does not include the provision of unregulated care (such as a nanny, babysitting, etc) or experience overseas.
